

God's Design and Our Agendas

John 12:12-19

Brother Jason Lee

Introduction & Textual Analysis

- 1) Disappointment can come from putting our agendas before God's design

- 2) God's success is not gauged by human values

- 3) Jesus' example calls us to live sacrificially

Discussion Questions

1. What are some common misconceptions about Christianity and Jesus that you often read or hear?
2. When was the last time you felt disappointed by God? How did your relationship change or grow?
3. How do you respond when God does not answer your prayer in the way you expected?
4. How do you live sacrificially for others around you? How may God be calling you to grow in living sacrificially?